MEASURE AIMED AT ANARCHISTS

Bill Is Unanimously Recommended by Senate Judiciary Committee.

PENALTY IS PROVIDED

Proposed Law Combines Provisions of Several Bills Designed to Check Unlawful Agitation Against Government.

Washington, Feb. 21.—The senate judiciary committee, without awaiting the outcome of the inquiry into radical propaganda now under way, unanimously recommended legislation to punish anarchistic activities or propaganda and the display of flags or other emblems of violence.

The bill combines the "red flag" measure introduced by Senator New of Indiana and other bills designed to check unlawful agitation against the government and is expected to meet the demands of authors of these other measures which were aimed principally at the activities of the I. W. W.

Persons convicted of violations of the new law would be subject to a fine of not more than $5,000 or imprisonment for not more than five years, or both.

Louise Bryant Examined. After the committee had approved this legislation the sub-committee continued its investigation of lawless agitation with the examination of Louise Bryant, a writer and a speaker at a recent meeting in Washington, which brought about the senate inquiry.

As soon as Miss Bryant began testifying the spectators who crowded the committee room showed their approval or disapproval of her remarks by applause and hisses and Senator Overman ordered the room cleared. Many remained in the corridor and later they were admitted to the hearing after being warned by Senator Overman not to make any demonstration.

Miss Bryant, wife of John Reed, also a writer, defended the Bolshevik regime in Russia, but admitted that Bolshevism would "not fit America."

Opposed to Violence. She declared she was opposed to the overthrow of any government by violence and asserted the Washington meeting was held to protest against American intervention in Russia.

Denying stories of atrocities in Russia, told of by previous witnesses before the committee, Miss Bryant said she did not have a mission to spread Bolshevism propaganda, but was trying to get Bolshevism understood.

PERSHING WILL NOT RUN

Too Busy With Military Duties to Consider Politics, Says Letter.

Sharon, Pa., Feb. 21.—That General John J. Pershing, commander of the American Expeditionary Forces, mentioned as being the next republican presidential candidate, will not be a candidate was announced here by James Bracken, republican leader.

Mr. Bracken made the announcement following receipt of a letter from Colonel Carl Boyd, private secretary to the American general. The letter came in reply to a letter sent General Pershing by Bracken.

In reply to the letter, Colonel Boyd, speaking for General Pershing, said: "General Pershing is concerned only with his military duties."

NEW WAR INSURANCE RATES

Premiums 30 Per Cent Lower Than in Private Companies.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Conversion rates for government war risk insurance became known and according to officials of the bureau of war risk insurance, average 30 per cent lower than rates for similar policies in private companies. They are based upon the American experience table of mortality with interest at 3½ per cent figured on a monthly basis, but because the government pays all expenses of administration, a net rate less than demanded by commercial policies is possible.

WHEAT ROTTEN AND MOULDY

Impure Food Alleged to Have Been Sent to Belgium.

New York, Feb. 21.—Chief Magistrate McAdoo, presiding over the district attorney's inquiry into milk distribution, advocated an investigation by congress on charges that "rotten and mouldy" wheat had been forwarded to Belgium through the relief commission, ultimately causing many deaths.

The magistrate said the accusation made by Raymond Smith, a federal trade commission investigator, and Alfred W. McCann, a food expert, as witnesses before him, were so grave as to demand a thorough sifting.

FLAYS BIG BUSINESS

Senator La Follette Vigorously
Defends His Loyalty.

Says Meat Packers Are Largely Responsible for the Present High Cost of Living.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Senator La Follette of Wisconsin vigorously defended his loyalty in the course of a long address in the senate on what he pictured as causes for popular unrest in the United States. The senator declared he would no longer permit aspersions on his loyalty and declared that his sole aim was to preserve pure democracy in this country.

Speaking in favor of increasing salaries carried in the legislative, judicial and executive appropriation bill before the senate, Senator La Follette attacked the big business interests and especially the meat packing firms, as being largely responsible for the high cost of living and consequent unrest among the people. He also charged that the administration had failed to enforce the Sherman anti-trust law.

Senator Underwood of Alabama, in charge of the appropriation measure, made a heated reply. He declared that congress had always been responsive to the will of the people and said there was no anarchistic sentiment in the United States, "no matter what the Wisconsin senator may dream."

CAMPAIGN OPENS APRIL 21

Victory Liberty Loan Plans Seem to Be Misunderstood.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Scores of telegrams reaching the Treasury indicated existence of a wide misapprehension that the Victory Liberty Loan had been abandoned or modified materially by decision of the house ways and means committee to authorize insurance of notes instead of bonds.

This prompted Secretary Glass to reiterate that the campaign would begin April 21 or possibly earlier and that it would be popular in nature, with the expectation of selling the securities to millions of Americans.

Session Is Put Off As Result of Anarchist's Attack on Premier Clemenceau.

CONDITION FAVORABLE

Statesman's Wound Without Complications or Fever and Result of X-Ray Examination Is Awaited—Wilson Sends Sympathy.

London, Feb. 21.—The peace conference in Paris has decided to adjourn as a result of the attack on Premier Georges Clemenceau, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Paris.

Paris, Feb. 21.—Premier Georges Clemenceau, who was shot and seriously wounded by an anarchist, Emile Cottin, is resting comfortably, no fever having developed and no complications appearing.

Nothing definite can be known as to what the results of the premier's injuries are likely to be until an x-ray examination of the wound is developed and examined by the physicians. The wound in itself is slight but necessarily serious for a man as old as is the French Premier.

The physicians say that his heart and arteries are young and they point out that he has been a lifelong abstainer from alcoholic drinks, has not smoked for 20 years and that he has followed a careful rule of living. This has resulted in making him an extraordinarily vigorous man for his years.

Lung Penetrated; Slight Bleeding. The assassin's bullet penetrated one of Premier Clemenceau's lungs, causing a slight hemorrhage, it was officially announced today. His condition, however, was said to be satisfactory. The statement said:

"There was a slight hemolysis (hemorrhage of the lungs), owing to the bullet's penetration of the lung. The general local condition was very satisfactory. Temperature was normal and the premier took a normal amount of food."

"The premier certainly is seriously hurt; his condition is as satisfactory as possible," Georges Mandel, Premier Clemenceau's chief clerk, is quoted as saying. The quotation is attributed to the clerk by Marcel Hutin in the Echo de Paris.

Wilson Sends Sympathy.

On board United States Steamship George Washington, Feb. 21.—President Wilson has sent the following message of condolence on learning of the attack on Premier Clemenceau:

"Lansing, American mission, Paris: Please convey to M. Clemenceau my heartfelt sympathy and my joy at his escape."

"I sincerely hope that the report that he was only slightly injured is altogether true. I was deeply shocked by the news of the attack."

—Woodrow Wilson.

Taft Cables Message.

San Francisco, Feb. 21.—The Pacific coast congress for a League of Nations under the auspices of the League to Enforce Peace, at its session here sent a cablegram to "the people of France," as follows:

"Our hearts are moved toward you. We pray the life of your great leader may be spared to complete the mighty work he has in hand."

The cablegram was signed William H. Taft, president of the League to Enforce Peace.

BAKER ASKED FOR CLEMENCY

Urged President to Commute Death Sentences of Soldiers.

Washington, Feb. 21.—In answer to statements contained in a letter from Brig. Gen. S. T. Ansell, of the judge advocate general's corps, read to the house by Representative Burnett of Alabama, the War department made public the text of a letter addressed by Secretary Baker to the President on May 1, 1918, urging that the sentences of death imposed on four enlisted men of the American army in France be commuted to brief confinement. General Ansell wrote that he had found it necessary to place recommendations for clemency in the hands of a member of congress in order that they might reach the President.

MAY IS EARLIEST CHANCE

Troops Cannot Be Withdrawn From Russia Until Then.

Washington, Feb. 21.—The middle of May is the earliest date when the troops can be removed from the Archangel region, it was stated authoritatively. Dispatch of British and American engineers to repair the railroad line in the Murmansk region is a precautionary measure to supplement movement out through the White sea. The ice breaks up in Archangel about the middle of May and the railway cannot be repaired before that time.

NAZIMOVA'S "EYE FOR EYE"

Brilliant Actress' Latest Screen Play at the Park Theatre Tomorrow

"Eye for Eye," which is shown at the Park theatre tomorrow, and in which Nazimova will be seen in the leading role of Hassouna, has created new and greater heights in the annals of the silent drama. The production and acting are both of superlative quality and the audience will be on the quiver of excitement and enthusiasm during the entire period of the performance.

Hassouna, a young and very beautiful Arabian girl, lives in the tented city of her tribe in the desert. Here comes Captain Cadere, an officer of the French navy in pursuit of his duty. In a religious frenzy the tribe capture and make him prisoner, intending to kill him at dawn. Hassouna has seen the handsome young Frenchman and falls in love with him. By strategy she affects his release and escape and then confesses her deed to her father. The tribe is enraged at her act and condemn her to death—choosing to abandon her in the desert where she will perish from thirst. She is rescued by another tribe who take her to the city of Tangiers and sell her as a dancing girl to a traveling circus.

After many hardships and much ill-usage at the hands of the brutal manager of the circus she is rescued and taken to the home of the man she aided in the desert. In scenes which occur during this period of the thrilling drama Nazimova is superb in the utter abandon of her art—she becomes the passionate, fiery young child of the desert who does not know the meaning of the word restraint.

In the scenes in which she does the dance of the Veils she holds the audience at the palm of her hand—not a sound to break the rapt attention with which her work is received. It is a picture which arrests the attention and expands the imagination—transporting the beholder to the heart of things Oriental and mysterious and telling a story of intrigue and passion, which is not to be surpassed.

The play is taken from "L'Occident," a successful drama by Henri Kistemaeker, the Belgian dramatist, and adapted for the screen by June Mathis and Albert Capellani. The direction was the work of Mr. Capellani under the personal supervision of Maxwell Karger.

WOMAN'S REALM

MANNISH AND DAINTY

By MARGARET ROHE
(Written for the United Press)

Oh say can you C
The she Bee Vee D?
It suits to a T
And is trim as can be.

Ah, Woman in her hours of ease is truly difficult to please. Just when she's learned the "shimee" art, perversely she won't dress the part, but doffs her dainty silk chemise to don new female Bee Vee D's. But should she try the "shimee shiver" in Bee Vee D's, 'twill prove a flivver. Of this I feel convinced, don't you? Of course for other wear they'll do. In fact I think they're very smart and fit to take important part 'mongst Everywoman's lingerie, this newest female Bee Vee D.

Though they're not known by just this name, they by another fit the same, and ape as neatly as can be this manly form of lingerie. Of nain-sook, mull or marquisette; of crepe de chine or crepe Georgette; of Chinese silk, and other fabrics of this ilk, they're cut form-fitting in one piece, and if you be a bit obese a knitted insert o'er each hip will hold you flat and never rip. In spite of this you must agree that this is rip-ping lingerie.

There's yet another mannish fair attacking female underwear. Some of the corsets have, I swan, real galsuses to keep them on. Just plain suspenders, yet not plain, for they're pink satin in the main, with rose-buds or a bow or two adorning them, of baby blue. O'er shoulders fair they pinkly pass, and tend to keep well stayed, a lass. They also tend to well suspend her and cost a bit of legal tender. To girdle corsets they're attached, of silk and tricot, all pink matched. Of bones these corsets have but few, and give that latest figure new, which makes you look, though lithe and small, as if you were no stays at all.

All newest corsets come this way, so soft and supple that you may, though firm and snugly you're embraced, still breathe and bend, oh, quite a bit, and loil a trifle when you sit. Ah, truly, to be thusly stayed were joy to matron and to maid.

And from pajamas, since they've seen 'em, the fair sex will let nothing wean 'em. Such gorgeous garments, rare and racy, of softest silk with insets lacy. Bedecked with ruffles frivolous and lots of other fluff and fuss. Some haven't any sleeves at all, some too diaphanous to call a sleeve aren't worth the mention, although they have a sleeve intention.

They come in every tint and hue rose, lavender, green, yellow, blue. Some are embroidered lavishly in beads from the menagerie, in flowers, fowls and fishes too, and other fauna from the zoo. If you've designs to buy a few then they'll soon have designs on you.

Some are more plainly tailor made, in softest satin, pink of shade, but even these are gathered in to frilly ruffles round each shin, and girdled round about the waist with tasseled cord, in perfect taste. They all with beauty are replete, seductively and chichly sweet. It really seems a shame to me they must be worn where few may see, and only donned in darkest night, when you've put out the cat and light.

Intestines are imported into the United States from China to the extent of nearly $400,000 worth a year. They are used by packing houses for sausage casings. The intestines are prepared for shipping at Shanghai, Hankow, or Tientsin by being scraped, cleaned and preserved with salt and salt water, and packed in oak barrels having a capacity of 2,500 to 3,000 bundles with about 30 per cent salt. Pig intestines are exported in a dried condition.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

GIVEN 20 YEARS FOR CONSPIRACY

Victor Berger and Four Other Socialists Are Sentenced at Chicago.

DEFEND THEIR COURSE

Prisoners Deliver Addresses on Socialism and Liken Themselves to Political and Moral Martyrs of History.

Chicago, Feb. 21.—Federal Judge Landis imposed a maximum prison sentence of 20 years upon Congressman-elect Victor L. Berger of Milwaukee and four other Socialist leaders, who in final pleas likened themselves to history's great martyrs.

The five men, convicted of conspiracy to obstruct the draft in violation of the espionage act, succeeded in obtaining release on $25,000 bail from Judge Alschuler and declared they would carry the legal fight to the United States supreme court if necessary.

Rev. Irwin St. John Tucker, lecturer and writer.

Adolph Germer, national secretary of the Socialist party.

J. Louis Engdahl, editor of the American Socialist.

William F. Kruse, head of the Young People's Socialist league.

Judge Landis overruled motions for a new trial and for a stay of execution and for bail, but granted the filing of a petition for a writ of error.

Court Hesitates as to Bail.

Counsel for the convicted men then went before Judge Samuel P. Alschuler of the United States circuit court of appeals and asked for bail.

Judge Alschuler said he hesitated in granting the motion for bail lest the defendants continue their Socialist agitation. He interviewed each of the five and then granted them bail, increased from $10,000 to $25,000 with the understanding that they refrain from resuming their former acts and utterances during the pendency of their case.

The new bonds had been fixed at $25,000 on each count and each of the five was found guilty on two counts. The surety, too, was required to be double the sum fixed, or $100,000 each, or $500,000 for all.

Berger and his four associates took full advantage of the customary inquiry of the judge whether they had anything to say before sentence was passed, and the Milwaukee congressman-elect finished reading his 2,000 word typewritten statement with tears streaming down his face. He professed no surprise at the verdict, though declaring his conviction was in violation of the constitution and asserted he would retract nothing he had said or written.

Irwin St. John Tucker, in his plea, compared himself and the others to Jesus Christ before Pontius Pilate.

Scheidemann refused to give any explanation.

No More Rail Laws This Session.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Congress will attempt no legislation of railroad problems until the next regular session, members of the Senate interstate commerce committee said, when open hearings, conducted since early in January, were practically concluded. He said no action was contemplated on the resolution of Senator Cummings of Iowa to prevent relinquishment of the roads before Congress acts.

Catholics Issue Radical Plan for Reconstruction

Bishops Call on Labor to Resist Wage Reductions—Approve War Labor Board

(By United Press)

Washington, Feb. 21.—An American reconstruction program, surprisingly radical in many of its features, backed by the official approval of the hierarchy of the Catholic church in America, was made public here today.

The program is to be distributed in pamphlet form throughout the country by the committee on special war activities of the National Catholic War Council. Its significance lies in the fact that it is tantamount to an official pronouncement of the Catholic church in America, as represented by its bishops and archbishops. The committee signing the paper consists of Rt. Rev. Peter J. Muldoon, bishop of Rockford, Ill.; Rt. Rev. Joseph Schrembs, bishop of Toledo, O.; Rt. Rev. Patrick J. Hayes, coadjutor bishop of New York, said to be slated for the office of archbishop of New York; and Rt. Rev. William T. Russell, bishop of Charleston, S. C.

This committee was selected to represent the Catholic bishops of America, and it is generally understood that every line of the pronouncement issued today has been carefully studied and passed upon by practically every notable Catholic prelate in the United States before being made public. The program therefore, may be said to be an official statement of the attitude of the American Catholics toward social and economic problems now engaging the attention of all thinkers.

In many respects the program resembles that of the British Labor party. It endorses many social and economic doctrines heretofore pronounced socialist by conservative thinkers.

The Catholic program is embodied in a pamphlet called "Social Reconstruction."

The Catholic bishops: Approve Sec. Lane's scheme for settling returned soldiers on reclaimed lands.

Encourage labor to resist general wage reductions.

Demand maintenance of wartime wage level in all except very few industries.

Ask cities to correct bad housing conditions.

Suggest that laws be passed to prevent the "extortionate practices of monopoly" that cause high cost of living.

Suggest that more attention be given to possibilities of government competition with the big monopolies that apparently cannot be controlled otherwise.

Approve cooperative stores, run and owned by working class.

Demand legal minimum wage high enough to provide not only for present needs of worker and family, but a surplus that shall be sufficient for adequate savings.

Approve social insurance against

COMING BACK TWICE, IT'S KID GLEASON

BY H. C. HAMILTON, (Staff Correspondent, United Press)

CHAPTER VII

Certain facts that have been related in preceding chapters in Gleason's history may give the impression that the famous old player was never any tremendous shucks as a pitcher. Truthfully, he wasn't, but he had some good spots as a fliker, which certainly shouldn't be denied him.

For instance, in 1894 the Orioles won their first of a string of three pennants, and Gleason contributed to this with a record of 21 victorious appearances on the pitching mound. It was in the same year, too, that his prowess as a willow welder began to make itself predominant, for he clouted a record of 342.

That, however, was only a fleeting reminder of what was in this player as a pitcher, for he soon discarded the toe plate for the second baseman's mitt and his bat proved far more effective than he ever did as a pitcher. In 1895 he did a lot of second basing, on and on for the Orioles before going to the berth permanently, and he succeeded in rapping off an average of 323 in his combined duties of pitching and playing second.

As he gradually drew away from baseball he taught the rudiments of second basing to Otto Knabe, and a friendship sprang up between pupil and teacher that has lasted to the present day. The two now are engaged in operating a billiard room in Philadelphia, both taking care of it in the winter months and one or the other constantly looking after it in the summer.

Gleason had opportunities to try before he finally accepted the position his hand at managing a baseball club of White Sox mentor when Charles A. Comiskey ousted Clarence Rowland, but he side-stepped each offer successfully. Federal leaguers once tried to rope his reputation and brains for the benefit of that circuit, but Gleason declined the offer.

After Gleason had gone to the White Sox in his first trip to Chicago the management of the Brooklyn Federal league club was offered to him, but he turned it down on the ground that the project was too risky and that the players would be hard to control in such a circuit.

AN ELKS HOME IS DISCUSSED

Entertainment Committee for Next Meeting, Wrestling Match Held Last Night

An enthusiastic Elks meeting was held on Thursday evening with close to fifty present. Some were old-timers who have not been in the portals for a long time and the tyler had to take two looks at them.

There was nomination of officers and good men were named to be voted on at the general election first meeting next month, being Thursday evening, March 6th.

Exalted Ruler Albert J. Ellison named B. L. Lagerquist, Al Mraz, John A. Hoffbauer and Fred Sanborn on the committee on entertainment for next meeting and they will get busy right away.

New membership applications were brought in. There will be initiation every meeting following for some time to come.

During the good of the order the Larkin boys, Tom and Arthur, aged 10 and 11 years, gave a fine exhibition of wrestling, their grandfather acting as referee. They have every hold in the game down pat. Three seven-minute rounds were wrestled.

The proposed Elks home was discussed. A vote of the membership present indicated every man in favor of it. A committee was named to secure data from other lodges and report at next meeting on an Elks' home pure and simple, a home with flats or rooms, a home with business quarters added.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

Tickets Bought to High School Entertainment to be Exchanged for Reserved Seats

Tickets bought from students of the senior class for the senior play to be given at the opera house on Thursday evening, Feb. 27th, may be exchanged for reserved seat coupons at Dunn's drug store after four o'clock Monday evening, Feb. 24th. All holders of tickets purchased from students are urged to make their reservations as quickly as possible, as the best seats go very quickly after the play is thrown open. Reservations can not be made over the phone as this has always resulted in misunderstanding, confusion, and dissatisfaction. Tickets must be secured from the students of the senior class as they have not been placed on sale elsewhere.

An attempt has been made to confine the sale of tickets to the number of reserved seats in the house, but the quality of the reservation will depend wholly on the promptness with which the student tickets are exchanged for reserved coupons. No distinction in price has been made in the sale of tickets. It is wholly a matter of coming early and reserving the best seats, as the later reservations will necessitate taking box seats.

DAYLIGHT SAVING LAW

Congress Enacted the System into a Law and it Continues in Force Until Repealed

(St. Paul Dispatch)
Reference was made in these columns quite recently to the opposition which is prevalent in agricultural districts to the plan of daylight saving embodied in the Federal statute. It has developed since that a misunderstanding of the situation is quite as general. The impression prevails that the setting forward of the clock was a war measure directed toward stimulating production and that it was for last summer only.

The fact is that Congress enacted the system into a law and it will continue in force until and unless repealed. At 2 a. m. on the last Sunday in March of each year, the clock must be set forward one hour and on the last Sunday in October, at the same hour, there is a return to standard time. The law will take effect again on the 30th of next month, except in the improbable event of its repeal meantime.

CHAIN OF BANKS TO BE FORBIDDEN

William H. Schafer, Minneapolis Promoter, Proves Puzzle—Search for $500,000

BRAINERD PEOPLE INTERESTED

Several Were Directors in the Commonwealth Mortgage Co., Which Schafer Later Controlled

Laws may be passed at this legislature forbidding bank chain charters.

The present whereabouts of the $500,000 or more which William H. Schafer, meteoric young promoter, is accused of stealing from fourteen country banks which he controlled, through the medium of bad or doubtful unsecured notes, furnished a puzzle for both the prosecuting authorities and the state banking department, says the Minneapolis Journal.

Suit was started in district court by two minority stockholders of the Commonwealth Mortgage company seeking to recover on behalf of the company $301,000 in assets which the plaintiffs say three former directors of the company now hold.

State Senator W. A. Nolan, chairman of the senate banking committee, announced a bill is now being prepared designed to prevent the starting of "chain banks" and patterned on a similar law now in force in Wisconsin.

The attorney general's office found a new potential resource that may offset some of the losses of the 14 banks. Through a legal technicality, it was pointed out, the former owners of the Mortgage Security company may be liable for a 200 per cent assessment against the stock they used to own.

Schafer following the action of the municipal court yesterday in holding him to the grand jury, faced the possibility of remaining in jail indefinitely because unable to furnish greatly increased bail that may be demanded by the district court.

Arrest of a third man concerned in the management of the Schafer interests was predicted.

Attorney General C. L. Hilton prepared to ask the district court to appoint a receiver for the Mortgage Security company.

The most startling development today was the suit brought in district court by J. M. Viken, Minneapolis, and F. L. Gerten, St. Paul, as minority stockholders in the Commonwealth Mortgage company, against John P. Ernest, F. S. Graham and J. L. Winfield, who, the petition says, were directors of the Commonwealth company and in control of its affairs from Jan. 1, 1917, until Aug. 15, 1918.

The suit includes as defendants Mrs. Sophie B. Ernest and Mrs. Bessie E. Graham.

The suit asks judgment for $301,000 and what all real estate owned by the defendants be held in trust by the court pending the outcome.

M. C. O'Donnell, attorney for the plaintiffs, said today the defendants in the new suit were in charge of the company before Schafer gained control.

The application for a receivership for the Commonwealth Mortgage company, previously brought by other minority stockholders, will be heard by District Judge H. D. Dickinson tomorrow.

RECEIVES CALL TO DULUTH CHURCH

Rev. R. E. Cody, Pastor of First Baptist Church in Brainerd Seven Years, May Accept Call

PREACHED THERE ON FEB. 9TH

Offered an Increase of Salary and a Larger Congregation in West Duluth

Rev. R. E. Cody, pastor of the First Baptist church of Brainerd, has received a call from a Duluth church, the West Duluth Baptist, and preached there on Sunday, Feb. 9. He examined the field there and was pleased with conditions. The church is located in one of the most rapidly growing sections of Duluth and has a large congregation. An increase of salary was offered him.

Rev. Cody has preached seven years in Brainerd and he and his estimable wife have endeared themselves to church and church friends. He has been one of the public spirited men of Brainerd.

He has not yet announced his decision on the acceptance or non-acceptance of the Duluth offer.

At the Best Tomorrow

It is doubtful if any imaginary character and the actress portraying it ever had more in common than pretty Lila Lee, the diminutive screen actress, and the character of Bessie Meggison, which she assumes in her first Paramount picture, "The Cruise of the Make-Believes," and which will be shown at the Best theatre tomorrow.

In this picture Bessie is shown as a big-hearted little girl, highly imaginative and sympathetic. In real life that describes Lila Lee. She is sixteen years old and she combines the charm of imaginative and sparkling youth with the acting ability of much older actresses.

She has already had eight years' experience on the speaking stage and she has assimilated the technique of acting before the camera with astonishing quickness. It is doubtful if a better vehicle than "The Cruise of the Make-Believes" could have been selected for her first picture.

Platte Lake Auxiliary

The Platte Lake Auxiliary held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Louis Wohl, Saturday, Feb. 8th. The usual business of the meeting was attended to. The members of the Auxiliary finished its allotted garments and the remaining yarn was sold. The Auxiliary voted to continue the meetings. Mr. and Mrs. Ericsson and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hillman of Maple Grove, attended the meeting. The latter donated a dollar to the Red Cross. Mabel Randall, secretary.

Fidelity in Small Things.

Fidelity in small things is at the base of every great achievement. We too often forget this, and yet no truth needs more to be kept in mind, particularly in the troubled crisis of history and in the crises of individual life.—Charles Wagner.

ABOLISH DAYLIGHT SAVING

Senate Committee Amends Agricultural Measure.

Washington, Feb. 21.—After adding an amendment for the repeal of the daylight saving act, the senate agriculture committee ordered favorably reported the $31,000,000 annual agricultural appropriation bill with committee amendments approximating $5,000,000.

The amendments were proposed by Chairman Gore and were adopted by a unanimous vote.

Mexicans and Yaquis Clash.

Nogales, Ariz., Feb. 21.—Two battles between Mexican soldiers and Yaqui Indians have occurred near Nogales in the last 48 hours. The last encounter occurred within nine miles of Nogales, Sonora. Twenty Mexicans were killed. The Yaqui casualties are unknown. The first engagement took place near Nogales, Sonora, 20 miles east of Nogales. Its results are unknown. Apprehension is felt for the safety of 60 American business men, who left for Mazatlan and other west coast points.

The Heroic Sacrifices of France

Never in the world's history has any nation ever sacrificed so heroically of its blood and treasure than has France in the present world conflict. Her great peasant population have suffered and bled for democracy with undying fortitude. America also owes these people a great debt of gratitude for a perfect remedy for stomach liver and intestinal disorders which it is reported has already saved many American lives and prevented thousands of surgical operations. Geo. H. Mayr, for years a leading Chicago chemist, imports and sells it in this country under the name of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Johnson's Pharmacy and druggists everywhere.

DEFENDS CAMP CONDITIONS

General Pershing Denies Stories Regarding Brest.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Health conditions at Brest, France, general camp conditions and the method of handling troops through that camp have "received high praise from all who inspected them since the first formative day," General Pershing reported to the War department. The message said General Pershing himself, General Harbord, his chief of staff, the chief surgeon and the inspector general of the American Expeditionary force, had all personally inspected the camp the last month.

Has First "Dry" Banquet.

Chicago, Feb. 21.—A "dry" banquet was indulged in by 800 members of the Showmen's League of America for the first time since annual spreads were inaugurated by the organization five years ago. Former Governor Eberhart, of Minnesota, the principal speaker, urged the showmen to "make the show of today so clean that the minister and his wife and children can go to your shows." Edward O. Taibot of Chicago was elected president of the league.

Choose Carefully.

It is impossible to read every book you see. You must choose. The important question is, What decides your choice? Are you reading a certain book because you happened to find it on the table at your elbow when you dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Or are you reading it because it is advertised as "one of the six best sellers," or because you happened to like the frontispiece?

The choice of books means a great deal today. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you choose wisely, since you haven't time for all.

DRIVES HOME FACT THAT PEOPLE PAY

NEW REVENUE LAW WILL TEACH THEM FORCIBLY WHERE THE MONEY COMES FROM.

FEW WILL ESCAPE TAXATION

Padgett's Retort Concerning "Secrecy" of Executive Sessions Was Based on Truth—Vardaman Tells of Great Demand for Farm Labor.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington.—The drift toward centralization in the federal government and toward paternalism generally continues, in spite of the protests of a very few who would still cling to the old ideas of what the government was in the early days. There have been several speeches made on this subject and solemn warnings have been issued, but it is observed that there is not much use in trying to stop the people from coming to the government for everything possible. The idea seems to have grown into large proportions that the government can do almost anything for the people, and that it is the duty of the government to support the people rather than that of the people to support the government.

A great many people may be aroused when the new revenue law goes into effect and it is found that few will escape taxation. Every married man with an income of more than $2,000 a year and every single man with an income of more than $1,000 a year will be compelled to pay an income tax. This will bring home to at least 20,000,000 people the fact that it costs money to carry on a war. Then there are other taxes levied in the bill which will reach many people, and which will probably aid in keeping up high prices, all of which will give all the people information that the government is not entirely made of money and that the money that has been paid out in all the extravaganzas that have been going on for several years past will have to be paid by somebody, and in the end it is the people themselves.

During the debate in the senate on the question of employing the unemployed, Senator Kenyon of Iowa and Senator Thomas of Colorado were exchanging opinions, and Kenyon remarked: "In the words of a great man who the senator did not think was a Democrat, it is a condition and not a theory that confronts us right now."

"I know he was not a Democrat," responded Thomas.

It is well known among all senators that Senator Thomas still refuses to consider Grover Cleveland a Democrat. Even so, he is often twitted with the fact of having voted for Cleveland for president on three different occasions.

When the celebrated cablegram of President Wilson regarding the increase of the navy was being talked about in the senate, and nearly everybody understood its contents, although Chairman Padgett of the naval affairs committee would not make it public, Humphreys of Mississippi said he did not see why the house could not go into executive session and then the cablegram could be kept secret and yet all members of the house be informed as to its actual contents.

"I have been on committees for fifteen years," responded Padgett, "and we have been holding executive sessions, and everything that was done in executive session was published in the newspapers the next morning."

There is a good deal of truth in what Padgett said, for there is little in the way of secret sessions of committees that is worth knowing that does not get into the papers.

Senator Vardaman of Mississippi says the whole country is crying for farm labor. "I receive from one to fifty letters from my constituents in Mississippi every day, 'urging me to use what little influence I may have with the war department to get the boys out of the army, in order that they may come back and help to make a crop the present year. And if the boys are not permitted to go home pretty soon they will not be able to make a crop during the year 1919. I think it is an outrage and an injustice to the soldiers and a misfortune to the country that the farmers' boys are not discharged and sent back to their homes."

It often happens that newspaper articles and editorials are put into the Congressional Record by some senator or congressman. Senator Nelson of Minnesota went them one better recently when he inserted the entire contents of two complete newspapers. The veteran Minnesota senator had all this matter inserted, not because he favored bolshevism, for he is one of the bitterest opponents of that sort of anarchy, but because he wanted to show that the things which bolshevism stands for are the things that America has always stood against. One of these newspapers was printed in red ink, the color of anarchy. Senator Nelson urged them as an argument against Senator Borah's proposal to repeal the censorship powers granted the postmaster general under the espionage law.

Brazil's forests are estimated to cover 1,500,000 square miles, or about 48 per cent of the country's area.

ARMY OF 900,000 MEN

To Be Maintained in Germany by Britain, Says Churchill.

Declares That Allies Will See That Teutons Carry Out All Promises Made.

London, Feb. 21.—Winston Spencer Churchill, secretary of state for war, in a speech at the Mansion house, said that Great Britain proposes to retain about 900,000 men for the defense of the British and Allied interests during 1919. He continued:

"We are letting go three out of every four serving with the colors on Nov. 11, last year, when the fighting stopped and we are paying the fourth man double to finish up the job. All information received goes to show that the soldiers regard this treatment of the problem as essentially fair."

To Make War Impossible. "We are going to make measures which will make it physically impossible for Germany to begin a war of revenge, at any date during our lifetime. We are going to ask Germany to agree to those measures and help us carry them out. And after she has agreed we are going to stand by and see that she does carry them out, not only in the letter but in the spirit."

There is another reason why we are required to maintain an army in Germany for some time longer. We are going to make Germany pay what is rightful and possible in reparation of damage she has done. Both to prevent a renewal of the war, by effectually disarming Germany, and to secure reparation, on which we are determined, it is necessary to maintain a strong, compact, well disciplined army on the Rhine for some time to come. That army cannot be maintained on the voluntary basis."

Oil On Water Takes Fire.

New York, Feb. 21.—Oil on the water of Erie basin in Brooklyn caused a fire which spread to a drydock and damaged a score of large and small vessels. The basin became virtually a flaming lake and it was only with the greatest difficulty that the flames were checked. The flames spread to the Beard yacht basin, adjoining, threatening additional shipping, but fireboats and land engines deluged the craft with water, and the chief loss was confined to a tugboat.

2% on Sales 11% on Investment

Isn't this a reasonable profit?

It is what Swift & Company earned in 1918.

2 cents on each dollar of sales—only a fraction of a cent per pound—was too small to have any noticeable effect on prices.

11% on investment (capital and surplus) means only fair returns to the 25,000 shareholders; they received 8% dividends in 1918.

The 1918 earnings of Swift & Company were equivalent to a profit of only

$212 on Sales of $12,000

Would you be content with that margin of profit in your business?

RECIPE TO CLEAR A PIMPLY SKIN

Pimples are Impurities Seeking an Outlet Through Skin Pores.

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear; cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.

MEASURE AIMED AT ANARCHISTS

Bill Is Unanimously Recommended by Senate Judiciary Committee.

PENALTY IS PROVIDED

Washington, Feb. 21.—The senate judiciary committee, without awaiting the outcome of the inquiry into radical propaganda now under way, unanimously recommended legislation to punish anarchistic activities or propaganda and the display of flags or other emblems of violence.

The bill combines the "red flag" measure introduced by Senator New of Indiana and other bills designed to check unlawful agitation against the government and is expected to meet the demands of authors of these other measures which were aimed principally at the activities of the I. W. W. Persons convicted of violations of the new law would be subject to a fine of not more than $5,000 or imprisonment for not more than five years, or both.

Louise Bryant Examined. After the committee had approved this legislation the sub-committee continued its investigation of lawless agitation with the examination of Louise Bryant, a writer and a speaker at a recent meeting in Washington, which brought about the senate inquiry.

As soon as Miss Bryant began testifying the spectators who crowded the committee room showed their approval or disapproval of her remarks by applause and hisses and Senator Overman ordered the room cleared. Many remained in the corridor and later they were admitted to the hearing after being warned by Senator Overman not to make any demonstration.

Miss Bryant, wife of John Reed, also a writer, defended the Bolshevik regime in Russia, but admitted that Bolshevism would "not fit America."

Opposed to Violence. She declared she was opposed to the overthrow of any government by violence and asserted the Washington meeting was held to protest against American intervention in Russia.

Denying stories of atrocities in Russia, told of by previous witnesses before the committee, Miss Bryant said she did not have a mission to spread Bolshevik propaganda, but was trying to get Bolshevism understood.

PERSHING WILL NOT RUN

Too Busy With Military Duties to Consider Politics, Says Letter.

Sharon, Pa., Feb. 21.—That General John J. Pershing, commander of the American Expeditionary Forces, mentioned as being the next republican presidential candidate, will not be a candidate was announced here by James Bracken, republican leader.

Mr. Bracken made the announcement following receipt of a letter from Colonel Carl Boyd, private secretary to the American general. The letter came in reply to a letter sent General Pershing by Bracken.

In reply to the letter, Colonel Boyd, speaking for General Pershing, said: "General Pershing is concerned only with his military duties."

NEW WAR INSURANCE RATES

Premiums 30 Per Cent Lower Than in Private Companies.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Conversion rates for government war risk insurance became known and according to officials of the bureau of war risk insurance, average 30 per cent lower than rates for similar policies in private companies. They are based upon the American experience table of mortality with interest at 3 1/2 per cent figured on a monthly basis, but because the government pays all expenses of administration, a net rate less than demanded by commercial policies is possible.

WHEAT ROTTEN AND MOULDY

Impure Food Alleged to Have Been Sent to Belgium.

New York, Feb. 21.—Chief Magistrate McAdoo, presiding over the district attorney's inquiry into milk distribution, advocated an investigation by congress on charges that "rotten and mouldy" wheat had been forwarded to Belgium through the relief commission, ultimately causing many deaths.

The magistrate said the accusation made by Raymond Smith, a federal trade commission investigator, and Alfred W. McCann, a food expert, as witnesses before him, were so grave as to demand a thorough sifting.

YANKEES MADE GOOD

General Traub Denies Men Were Sacrificed in Argonne.

Americans Took in Three Hours What French Had Been Up Against for Four Years.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Before the house rules committee, Maj. Gen. Peter E. Traub, who commanded the Thirty-fifth division in the battle of the Argonne, denied the charge of Governor Allen of Kansas, that the men of the division, Missourians and Kansans, were sacrificed by failure of artillery support.

"We were up against three crack Boche divisions," said the general, "but we advanced almost seven miles on a mile and a half or two-mile front and held it. In the first three hours of the battle we had taken what the French had been up against for four years."

General Traub said the division's casualties in six days and nights of fighting were 500 killed and 4,500 wounded.

"The Germans had been preparing for the defense for four years and they had everything conceivable in the art of defense," he said. "There was a ridge filled with craters some 50 feet deep and the high ground at each side and in the rear was filled with a great defensive system."

Reports of lack of equipment and supplies were declared unfounded.

OCCUPY SPLENDID QUARTERS

American Soldiers on Rhine Are Made Comfortable.

Washington, Feb. 21.—The inspector general of the American Army of Occupation, after a thorough inspection of the units now in Germany, has reported the soldiers comfortably quartered and in excellent state of health.

General Pershing in a cablegram to the War department quoted the following as from the report of the inspector general: "No overcrowding of soldiers in quarters. Large proportion of American soldiers quartered in public buildings. Practically every soldier provided with suitable bedding."

GUARDS PATROL STATE LINE

Prevent Autos From Carrying Liquor Into Michigan.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 21.—Hundreds of Michiganders disappointedly turned back from the Ohio state line when federal officers were posted to dam a sudden flow of liquor into "dry" Michigan.

The "Klondike" rush into Ohio began with a state court ruling to prevent search of vehicles for contraband liquor without a search warrant. Federal guards quickly stopped the rush, acting under the Reed law.

Decides to Become Citizen.

Chicago, Feb. 21.—Frederick A. Stock will resume his place as conductor of the Chicago Symphony orchestra next week, directors of the orchestra association announced. From the death of Theodore Thomas in January, 1905, until he withdrew on the eve of the present season, Mr. Stock had conducted the orchestra. His resignation followed objections to him as an alien, and the announcement of his return stated that he had taken necessary steps toward citizenship.

MISS FRANCES MARION

Much has been written about the first American woman to set foot on German soil. This woman, Miss Frances Marion, is said to have been the first American woman to cross the Franco-German border after the armistice was signed. She went as the representative of the Committee on Public Information in the role of a scenario writer and we have Mr. Croel's word that she staged a special government picture.

FLAYS BIG BUSINESS

Senator La Follette Vigorously
Defends His Loyalty.

Says Meat Packers Are Largely Responsible for the Present High Cost of Living.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Senator La Follette of Wisconsin vigorously defended his loyalty in the course of a long address in the senate on what he pictured as causes for popular unrest in the United States. The senator declared he would no longer permit aspersions on his loyalty and declared that his sole aim was to preserve pure democracy in this country.

Speaking in favor of increasing salaries carried in the legislative, judicial and executive appropriation bill before the senate, Senator La Follette attacked the big business interests and especially the meat packing firms, as being largely responsible for the high cost of living and consequent unrest among the people. He also charged that the administration had failed to enforce the Sherman anti-trust law.

Senator Underwood of Alabama, in charge of the appropriation measure, made a heated reply. He declared that congress had always been responsive to the will of the people and said there was no anarchistic sentiment in the United States, "no matter what the Wisconsin senator may dream."

CAMPAIGN OPENS APRIL 21

Victory Liberty Loan Plans Seem to Be Misunderstood.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Scores of telegrams reaching the Treasury indicated existence of a wide misapprehension that the Victory Liberty Loan had been abandoned or modified materially by decision of the house ways and means committee to authorize insurance of notes instead of bonds.

This prompted Secretary Glass to reiterate that the campaign would begin April 21 or possibly earlier and that it would be popular in nature, with the expectation of selling the securities to millions of Americans.

Session Is Put Off As Result of Anarchist's Attack on Premier Clemenceau.

CONDITION FAVORABLE

Statesman's Wound Without Complications or Fever and Result of X-Ray Examination Is Awaited—Wilson Sends Sympathy.

London, Feb. 21.—The peace conference in Paris has decided to adjourn as a result of the attack on Premier Georges Clemenceau, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Paris.

Paris, Feb. 21.—Premier Georges Clemenceau, who was shot and seriously wounded by an anarchist, Emile Cottin, is resting comfortably, no fever having developed and no complications appearing.

Nothing definite can be known as to what the results of the premier's injuries are likely to be until an x-ray examination of the wound is developed and examined by the physicians. The wound in itself is slight but necessarily serious for a man as old as is the French Premier.

The physicians say that his heart and arteries are young and they point out that he has been a lifelong abstainer from alcoholic drinks, has not smoked for 20 years and that he has followed a careful rule of living. This has resulted in making him an extraordinarily vigorous man for his years.

Lung Penetrated; Slight Bleeding. The assassin's bullet penetrated one of Premier Clemenceau's lungs, causing a slight hemorrhage, it was officially announced today. His condition, however, was said to be satisfactory. The statement said:

"There was a slight hemolysis (hemorrhage of the lungs), owing to the bullet's penetration of the lung. The general local condition was very satisfactory. Temperature was normal and the premier took a normal amount of food."

The premier certainly is seriously hurt; his condition is as satisfactory as possible," Georges Mandel, Premier Clemenceau's chief clerk, is quoted as saying. The quotation is attributed to the clerk by Marcel Hutin in the Echo de Paris.

Wilson Sends Sympathy.

On board United States Steamship George Washington, Feb. 21.—President Wilson has sent the following message of condolence on learning of the attack on Premier Clemenceau:

"Lansing, American mission, Paris: Please convey to M. Clemenceau my heartfelt sympathy and my joy at his escape."

"I sincerely hope that the report that he was only slightly injured is altogether true. I was deeply shocked by the news of the attack."

—Woodrow Wilson.

Taft Cables Message.

San Francisco, Feb. 21.—The Pacific coast congress for a League of Nations under the auspices of the League to Enforce Peace, at its session here sent a cablegram to "the people of France," as follows:

"Our hearts are moved toward you. We pray the life of your great leader may be spared to complete the mighty work he has in hand."

The cablegram was signed William H. Taft, president of the League to Enforce Peace.

BAKER ASKED FOR CLEMENCY

Urged President to Commute Death Sentences of Soldiers.

Washington, Feb. 21.—In answer to statements contained in a letter from Brig. Gen. S. T. Ansell, of the judge advocate general's corps, read to the house by Representative Burnett of Alabama, the War department made public the text of a letter addressed by Secretary Baker to the President on May 1, 1918, urging that the sentences of death imposed on four enlisted men of the American army in France be commuted to brief confinement. General Ansell wrote that he had found it necessary to place recommendations for clemency in the hands of a member of congress in order that they might reach the President.

MAY IS EARLIEST CHANCE

Troops Cannot Be Withdrawn From Russia Until Then.

Washington, Feb. 21.—The middle of May is the earliest date when the troops can be removed from the Archangel region, it was stated authoritatively. Dispatch of British and American engineers to repair the railroad line in the Murmansk region is a precautionary measure to supplement movement out through the White sea. The ice breaks up in Archangel about the middle of May and the railway cannot be repaired before that time.

NAZIMOVA'S "EYE FOR EYE"

"Eye for Eye," which is shown at the Park theatre tomorrow, and in which Nazimova will be seen in the leading role of Hassouna, has created new and greater heights in the annals of the silent drama. The production and acting are both of superlative quality and the audience will be on the qui vive of excitement and enthusiasm during the entire period of the performance.

Hassouna, a young and very beautiful Arabian girl, lives in the tented city of her tribe in the desert. Here comes Captain Cadriere, an officer of the French navy in pursuit of his duty. In a religious frenzy the tribe capture and make him prisoner, intending to kill him at dawn. Hassouna has seen the handsome young Frenchman and falls in love with him. By strategy she affects his release and escape and then confesses her deed to her father. The tribe is enraged at her act and condemn her to death—choosing to abandon her in the desert where she will perish from thirst. She is rescued by another tribe who take her to the city of Tangiers and sell her as a dancing girl to a traveling circus.

After many hardships and much ill-usage at the hands of the brutal manager of the circus she is rescued and taken to the home of the man she aided in the desert. In scenes which occur during this period of the thrilling drama Nazimova is superb in the utter abandon of her art—she becomes the passionate, fiery young child of the desert who does not know the meaning of the word restraint.

In the scenes in which she does the dance of the Veils she holds the audience at the palm of her hand—not a sound to break the rapt attention with which her work is received. It is a picture which arrests the attention and expands the imagination—transporting the beholder to the heart of things Oriental and mysterious and telling a story of intrigue and passion, which is not to be surpassed.

The play is taken from "L'Occident," a successful drama by Henri Kistemaeker, the Belgian dramatist, and adapted for the screen by June Mathis and Albert Capellani. The direction was the work of Mr. Capellani under the personal supervision of Maxwell Karger.

WOMAN'S REALM

MANNISH AND DAINTY

By MARGARET ROHE
(Written for the United Press)

Oh say can you C
The she Bee Vee D?
It suits to a T
And is trim as can be.

Ah, Woman in her hours of ease is truly difficult to please. Just when she's learned the "shimée" art, perversely she won't dress the part, but dons her dainty silk chemise to don new female Bee Vee D's. But should she try the "shimée shiver" in Bee Vee D's, 'twill prove a flivver. Of this I feel convinced, don't you? Of course for other wear they'll do. In fact I think they're very smart and fit to take important part 'mongst Everywoman's lingerie, this newest female Bee Vee D.

Though they're not known by just this name, they by another fit the same, and are as nearly as can be this manly form of lingerie. Of nain-sook, nain or marquisette; of crepe de chine or crepe Georgette; of Chinese silk, and other fabrics of this ilk, they're cut form-fitting in one piece, and if you be a bit obese a knitted insert over each hip will hold you flat and never rip. In spite of this you must agree that this is ripping lingerie.

There's yet another mannish flair attacking female underwear. Some of the corsets have, I swan, real gallsuses to keep them on. Just plain suspenders, yet not plain, for they're pink satin in the main, with rose-buds or a bow or two adorning them. Of baby blue. Over shoulders fair they pinkly pass, and tend to keep well stayed, a lass. They also tend to well suspend her and cost a bit of legal tender. To girdle corsets they're attached, of silk and tulle, all pink matched. Of bones these corsets have but few, and give that latest figure new, which makes you look, though lithe and small, as if you wore no stays at all.

All newest corsets come this way, so soft and supple that you may, though firm and snugly you're embraced, still breathe and bend, oh, quite a bit, and loil a trifle when you sit. Ah, truly, to be thusly stayed were joy to matron and to maid.

And from pajamas, since they've seen 'em, the fair sex will let nothing wear 'em. Such gorgeous garments, rare and racy, of softest silk with insets lace. Bedecked with ruffles frivolous and lots of other fluff and fuss. Some haven't any sleeves at all, some too diaphanous to call a sleeve aren't worth the mention, although they have a sleeve intention.

They come in every tint and hue rose, lavender, green, yellow, blue. Some are embroidered lavishly in beads from the menagerie, in flowers, fowls and fishes too, and other fauna from the zoo. If you've designs to buy a few then they'll soon have designs on you.

Some are more plainly tailor made, in softest satin, pink of shade, but even these are gathered in to frilly ruffles round each shin, and girdled round about the waist with tasseled cord, in perfect taste. They all with beauty are replete, seductively and chieflly sweet. It really seems a shame to me they must be worn where few may see, and only donned in darkest night, when you've put out the cat and light.

Importation of Intestines.

Intestines are imported into the United States from China to the extent of nearly $400,000 worth a year. They are used by packing houses for sausage casings. The intestines are prepared for shipping at Shanghai, Hankow, or Tientsin by being scraped, cleaned and preserved with salt and salt water, and packed in oak barrels having a capacity of 2,500 to 3,000 pounds with about 30 per cent salt. TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

The card party and luncheon given by the ladies of St. Francis Catholic church Thursday evening attracted two hundred people to the Knights of Columbus hall. A charge was made for the luncheon.

There was much rivalry evinced for the prizes offered. Mrs. James Walsh won the coffee donated by the Brainerd Grocery Co. and then gave it to the Sisters. Ernest Butler of Butler Brothers of the Ransford hotel, won the ham and gave it to Father Crean and the latter gave it to the Sisters.

Miss Marie Canan won the slippers. The cash prize of Con O'Brien and the package donated by J. W. Koop were also eagerly contested for.

ANONYMOUS COMMUNICATIONS

The Dispatch is often in receipt of anonymous communications. Such are never published. It is often funny to read them, as the writers urge the paper to come out openly and take a stand for this or that proposition while the writer, expressing his pleasure if the paper does so, hides his own identity and beats around the bush.

Sign your real name to communications. No paper publishes a thing unless it is assured where it comes from.

GIVEN 20 YEARS FOR CONSPIRACY

Victor Berger and Four Other Socialists Are Sentenced at Chicago.

DEFEND THEIR COURSE

Prisoners Deliver Addresses on Socialism and Liken Themselves to Political and Moral Martyrs of History.

Chicago, Feb. 21.—Federal Judge Landis imposed a maximum prison sentence of 20 years upon Congressman-elect Victor L. Berger of Milwaukee and four other Socialist leaders, who in final pleas likened themselves to history's great martyrs.

The five men, convicted of conspiracy to obstruct the draft in violation of the espionage act, succeeded in obtaining release on $25,000 bail from Judge Alschuler and declared they would carry the legal fight to the United States supreme court if necessary.

Besides Berger, publisher of the Milwaukee Leader, the other convicted men are:

Rev. Irwin St. John Tucker, lecturer and writer.

Adolph Germer, national secretary of the Socialist party.

J. Louis Engdahl, editor of the American Socialist.

William F. Kruse, head of the Young People's Socialist league.

Judge Landis overruled motions for a new trial and for a stay of execution and for bail, but granted the filing of a petition for a writ of error.

Court Hesitates as to Bail.

Counsel for the convicted men then went before Judge Samuel P. Alschuler of the United States circuit court of appeals and asked for bail.

Judge Alschuler said he hesitated in granting the motion for bail lest the defendants continue their Socialist agitation. He interviewed each of the five and then granted them bail, increased from $10,000 to $25,000 with the understanding that they refrain from resuming their former acts and utterances during the pendency of their case.

The new bonds had been fixed at $25,000 on each count and each of the five was found guilty on two counts. The surety, too, was required to be double the sum fixed, or $100,000 each, or $500,000 for all.

Berger and his four associates took full advantage of the customary inquiry of the judge whether they had anything to say before sentence was passed, and the Milwaukee congressman-elect finished reading his 2,000 word typewritten statement with tears streaming down his face. He professed no surprise at the verdict, though declaring his conviction was in violation of the constitution and asserted he would retract nothing he had said or written.

Irwin St. John Tucker, in his plea, compared himself and the others to Jesus Christ before Pontius Pilate.

General Ludendorff Resents Being Called "Adventurer."

Amsterdam, Feb. 21.—General Ludendorff, who had been credited as having been the driving force in the German military command, according to the Cologne Gazette, has sent two Prussian officers to Chancellor Scheidemann to demand an explanation or retraction of the remark said to have been made by Scheidemann that Ludendorff was an "adventurer."

Scheidemann refused to give any explanation.

Major Edwards Pleads Guilty to Forgery at St. Paul.

St. Paul, Feb. 21.—John W. Edwards, former major and accountant in the state military department, who pleaded guilty in the Ramsey county district court to the charge of forgery in the third degree, in connection with the forging of fictitious names to vouchers for soldiers' pay, was sentenced by Judge F. N. Dickinson to a term of five years in the penitentiary at Stillwater.

Thieves Dump Bales From Train and Load Them on Trucks.

Saverton, Pa., Feb. 21.—A gang of thieves boarded a Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad freight train as it was leaving East Stroudsburg, breaking open a car loaded with silk. They dumped out bales of silk valued at $40,000, which confederates loaded on two trucks, and made their escape.

No More Rail Laws This Session.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Congress will attempt no legislation of railroad problems until the next regular session, members of the Senate interstate commerce committee said, when open hearings, conducted since early in January, were practically concluded. Chairman Smith announced that the committee might hear other witnesses, but that none was expected. He said no action was contemplated on the resolution of Senator Cummins of Iowa to prevent relinquishment of the roads before Congress acts.

Another Unsung Hero; He Helped Capture Six Huns

PVT. EDWARD V. ARMSTRONG

Among the many unsung heroes of the war is Private Edward V. Armstrong. To him went the honor of being the tenth American soldier to whom was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross. He was one of a raiding party of five who captured six Germans just after our boys reached the front lines. The other four were killed later and before Armstrong left "over there" he lost his left arm.

Catholics Issue Radical Plan for Reconstruction

Bishops Call on Labor to Resist Wage Reductions—Approve War Labor Board

(By United Press)

Washington, Feb. 21.—An American reconstruction program, surprisingly radical in many of its features, backed by the official approval of the hierarchy of the Catholic church in America, was made public here today.

The program is to be distributed in pamphlet form throughout the country by the committee on special war activities of the National Catholic War Council. Its significance lies in the fact that it is tantamount to an official pronouncement of the Catholic church in America, as represented by its bishops and archbishops. The committee signing the paper consists of Rt. Rev. Peter J. Muldoon, bishop of Rockford, Ill.; Rt. Rev. Joseph Schrembs, bishop of Toledo, O.; Rt. Rev. Patrick J. Hayes, coadjutor bishop of New York, said to be slated for the office of archbishop of New York; and Rt. Rev. William T. Russell, bishop of Charleston, S. C.

This committee was selected to represent the Catholic bishops of America, and it is generally understood that every line of the pronouncement issued today has been carefully studied and passed upon by practically every notable Catholic prelate in the United States before being made public. The program therefore, may be said to be an official statement of the attitude of the American Catholics toward social and economic problems now engaging the attention of all thinkers.

In many respects the program resembles that of the British Labor party. It endorses many social and economic doctrines heretofore pronounced socialist by conservative thinkers.

The Catholic program is embodied in a pamphlet called "Social Reconstruction."

The Catholic bishops: Approve Sec. Lane's scheme for settling returned soldiers on reclaimed lands.

Encourage labor to resist general wage reductions.

Demand maintenance of wartime wage level in all except very few industries.

Ask cities to correct bad housing conditions.

Suggest that laws be passed to prevent the "extortionate practices of monopoly" that cause high cost of living.

Suggest that more attention be given to possibilities of government competition with the big monopolies that apparently cannot be controlled otherwise.

Approve cooperative stores, run and owned by working class.

Demand legal minimum wage high enough to provide not only for present needs of worker and family, but a surplus that shall be sufficient for adequate savings.

Approve social insurance against

COMING BACK TWICE, IT'S KID GLEASON

BY H. C. HAMILTON,

(Staff Correspondent, United Press)

CHAPTER VII

Certain facts that have been related in preceding chapters in Gleason's history may give the impression that the famous old player was never any tremendous shucks as a pitcher. Truthfully, he wasn't, but he had some good spots as a flinger, which certainly shouldn't be denied him.

For instance, in 1894 the Orioles won their first of a string of three pennants, and Gleason contributed to this with a record of 21 victorious appearances on the pitching mound. It was in the same year, too, that his prowess as a willow wielder began to make itself predominant, for he clouted a record of 342.

That, however, was only a fleeting reminder of what was in this player as a pitcher, for he soon discarded the too plate for the second baseman's mitt and his bat proved far more effective than he ever did as a pitcher. In 1895 he did a lot of second basing, on and on for the Orioles before going to the berth permanently, and he succeeded in rapping off an average of 323 in his combined duties of pitching and playing second.

As he gradually drew away from baseball he taught the rudiments of second basing to Otto Knabe, and a friendship sprang up between pupil and teacher that has lasted to the present day. The two now are engaged in operating a billiard room in Philadelphia, both taking care of it in the winter months and one or the other constantly looking after it in the summer.

Gleason had opportunities to try before he finally accepted the position his hand at managing a baseball club of White Sox mentor when Charles A. Comiskey ousted Clarence Rowland, but he side-stepped each offer successfully. Federal leaguers once tried to rope his reputation and brains for the benefit of that circuit, but Gleason declined the offer.

After Gleason had gone to the White Sox in his first trip to Chicago the management of the Brooklyn Federal league club was offered to him, but he turned it down on the ground that the project was too risky and that the players would be hard to control in such a circuit.

ENTHUSIASTIC ELKS MEETING

Officers Nominated, Election to Follow on Thursday, March 6th—New Members Gained

AN ELKS HOME IS DISCUSSED

Entertainment Committee for Next Meeting, Wrestling Match Held Last Night

An enthusiastic Elks meeting was held on Thursday evening with close to fifty present. Some were old-timers who have not been in the portals for a long time and the tyler had to take two looks at them.

There was nomination of officers and good men were named to be voted on at the general election first meeting next month, being Thursday evening, March 6th.

Exalted Ruler Albert J. Ellison named B. L. Lagerquist, Al. Mraz, John A. Hoffbauer and Fred Sanborn on the committee on entertainment for next meeting and they will get busy right away.

New membership applications were brought in. There will be initiation every meeting following for some time to come.

During the good of the order the Larkin boys, Tom and Arthur, aged 10 and 11 years, gave a fine exhibition of wrestling, their grandfather acting as referee. They have every hold in the game down pat. Three seven-minute rounds were wrestled.

The proposed Elks home was discussed. A vote of the membership present indicated every man in favor of it. A committee was named to secure data from other lodges and report at next meeting on an Elks' home pure and simple, a home with flats or rooms, a home with business quarters added.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

Tickets Bought to High School Entertainment to be Exchanged for Reserved Seats

Tickets bought from students of the senior class for the senior play to be given at the opera house on Thursday evening, Feb. 27th, may be exchanged for reserved seat coupons at Dunn's drug store after four o'clock Monday evening, Feb. 24th. All holders of tickets purchased from students are urged to make their reservations as quickly as possible, as the best seats go very quickly after the play is thrown open. Reservations can not be made over the phone as this has always resulted in misunderstanding, confusion, and dissatisfaction. Tickets must be secured from the students of the senior class as they have not been placed on sale elsewhere.

An attempt has been made to confine the sale of tickets to the number of reserved seats in the house, but the quality of the reservation will depend wholly on the promptness with which the student tickets are exchanged for reserved coupons. No distinction in price has been made in the sale of tickets. It is wholly a matter of coming early and reserving the best seats, as the later reservations will necessitate taking box seats.

DISPATCH WANTS GET RESULTS

DAYLIGHT SAVING LAW

Congress Enacted the System into a Law and it Continues in Force Until Repealed

Reference was made in these columns quite recently to the opposition which is prevalent in agricultural districts to the plan of daylight saving embodied in the Federal statute. It has developed since that a misunderstanding of the situation is quite as general. The impression prevails that the setting forward of the clock was a war measure directed toward stimulating production and that it was for last summer only.

The fact is that Congress enacted the system into a law and it will continue in force until and unless repealed. At 2 a. m. on the last Sunday in March of each year, the clock must be set forward one hour and on the last Sunday in October, at the same hour, there is a return to standard time. The law will take effect again on the 30th of next month, except in the improbable event of its repeal meantime.

CHAIN OF BANKS TO BE FORBIDDEN

William H. Schafer, Minneapolis Promoter, Proves Puzzle—Search for $500,000

BRAINERD PEOPLE INTERESTED

Several Were Directors in the Commonwealth Mortgage Co., Which Schafer Later Controlled

Laws may be passed at this legislature forbidding bank chain charters. The present whereabouts of the $500,000 or more which William H. Schafer, meteoric young promoter, is accused of stealing from fourteen country banks which he controlled, through the medium of bad or doubtful unsecured notes, furnished a puzzle for both the prosecuting authorities and the state banking department, says the Minneapolis Journal.

Suit was started in district court by two minority stockholders of the Commonwealth Mortgage company seeking to recover on behalf of the company $301,000 in assets which the plaintiffs say three former directors of the company now hold.

State Senator W. A. Nolan, chairman of the senate banking committee, announced a bill is now being prepared designed to prevent the starting of "chain banks" and patterned on a similar law now in force in Wisconsin.

The attorney general's office found a new potential resource that may offset some of the losses of the 14 banks. Through a legal technicality, it was pointed out, the former owners of the Mortgage Security company may be liable for a 200 per cent assessment against the stock they used to own.

Schafer following the action of the municipal court yesterday in holding him to the grand jury, faced the possibility of remaining in jail indefinitely because unable to furnish greatly increased bail that may be demanded by the district court.

Arrest of a third man concerned in the management of the Schafer interests was predicted.

Attorney General C. L. Hilton prepared to ask the district court to appoint a receiver for the Mortgage Security company.

The most startling development today was the suit brought in district court by J. M. Viken, Minneapolis, and F. L. Gerten, St. Paul, as minority stockholders in the Commonwealth Mortgage company, against John P. Ernest, F. S. Graham and J. L. Winfield, who, the petition says, were directors of the Commonwealth company and in control of its affairs from Jan. 1, 1917, until Aug. 15, 1918.

The suit includes as defendants Mrs. Sophie B. Ernest and Mrs. Bessie E. Graham.

The suit asks judgment for $301,000 and what all real estate owned by the defendants be held in trust by the court pending the outcome.

M. C. O'Donnell, attorney for the plaintiffs, said today the defendants in the new suit were in charge of the company before Schafer gained control.

The application for a receivership for the Commonwealth Mortgage company, previously brought by other minority stockholders, will be heard by District Judge H. D. Dickinson tomorrow.

RECEIVES CALL TO DULUTH CHURCH

Rev. R. E. Cody, Pastor of First Baptist Church in Brainerd Seven Years, May Accept Call

PREACHED THERE ON FEB. 9TH

Offered an Increase of Salary and a Larger Congregation in West Duluth

Rev. R. E. Cody, pastor of the First Baptist church of Brainerd, has received a call from a Duluth church, the West Duluth Baptist, and preached there on Sunday, Feb. 9. He examined the field there and was pleased with conditions. The church is located in one of the most rapidly growing sections of Duluth and has a large congregation. An increase of salary was offered him.

Rev. Cody has preached seven years in Brainerd and he and his estimable wife have endeared themselves to church and church friends. He has been one of the public spirited men of Brainerd.

He has not yet announced his decision on the acceptance or non-acceptance of the Duluth offer.

At the Best Tomorrow

It is doubtful if any imaginary character and the actress portraying it ever had more in common than pretty Lila Lee, the diminutive screen actress, and the character of Bessie McGibbon, which she assumes in her first Paramount picture, "The Cruise of the Make-Believes," and which will be shown at the Best theatre tomorrow.

In this picture Bessie is shown as a big-hearted little girl, highly imaginative and sympathetic. In real life that describes Lila Lee. She is sixteen years old and she combines the charm of imaginative and sparkling youth with the acting ability of much older actresses.

She has already had eight years' experience on the speaking stage and she has assimilated the technique of acting before the camera with astonishing quickness. It is doubtful if a better vehicle than "The Cruise of the Make-Believes" could have been selected for her first picture.

Platte Lake Auxiliary

The Platte Lake Auxiliary held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Louis Wohl, Saturday, Feb. 8th. The usual business of the meeting was attended to. The members of the Auxiliary finished its allotted garments and the remaining yarn was sold. The Auxiliary voted to continue the meetings. Mr. and Mrs. Ericsson and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hillman of Maple Grove, attended the meeting. The latter donated a dollar to the Red Cross. Mabel Randall, secretary.
